

Calling All Middle School Principals and Teachers:

Is Your School Up To the Challenge?

Engage your students in developing their own action plan and making Reduce, Reuse and Recycle a reality at your school!

WHAT: IMAGINE: Students for Global and Local Action,
an annual middle school leadership conference, presents:

"Waste Not, Want Not:

A Middle School Waste Reduction Challenge." Featuring:

- Engineering Design Tool Workshop
- Media Literacy Workshop
- Team Building Workshop
- Global Leadership Workshop
- Service Learning Workshop for Teachers
- Waste Management Resource Expo representing local and state environmental organizations.
- Problem-Based Simulation Activity on Community Waste Management

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Send a team of four innovative and community-minded students and one teacher to represent your school and lead the waste reduction campaign at your school. (May send more than one team.)

WHEN: Friday, November 5th, 2010 from 8:00-4:30

WHERE: The Orchard School
615 West 64th Street
Indianapolis, IN 46260

HOW MUCH TO ATTEND? NO COST TO ATTEND*

WHY: "Give students autonomy, purpose and opportunity for mastery—then watch them change the world." Dana H. Maloney, Educational Leadership, September 2010.

TO REGISTER AND FOR MORE INFO GO TO:

http://www.orchard.org/program/imagine-middle-school-conference/index.aspx

